STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING EX PARTE MEETINGS/DISCUSSIONS WITH PLAINTIFF, EUGENE MCCAIN'S TREATING PHYSICIANS, MEDICAL PROVIDERS AND PHARMACISTS

It is stipulated that Defense counsel shall be permitted to hold ex parte meetings/discussions with Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians, medical providers and pharmacists.

It is further stipulated that Defense counsel shall be required to give notice to Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists, both as to the purpose of any such ex parte meetings/discussions and to the fact that the ex parte meetings/discussions are not required.

It is further stipulated that Defense counsel shall advise Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists that they may have their own counsel present during the meetings/discussions.

It is further stipulated that Defense counsel shall advise Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists of the purpose of the meetings/discussions, as well as providing the treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists with the case caption information.

It is further stipulated that Defense counsel need not provide notice to Plaintiff's counsel nor obtain Plaintiff's counsel's consent before Defense counsel holds meetings/discussions with Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists.

It is further stipulated that Plaintiff's counsel is not entitled to participate in Defense counsel's ex parte meetings/discussions. However, this Order shall not be construed as limiting Plaintiff's counsel's ability to conduct ex parte meetings/discussions with Plaintiff, Eugene McCain's treating physicians/medical providers/pharmacists.

It is further stipulated that Defense counsel shall advise Plaintiff's counsel and all Co-Defense counsel, in writing, within 7 days after any such ex parte meetings/discussions take place.

It is further stipulated that Plaintiff's counsel shall advise all Defense counsel, in writing, within 7 days after Plaintiff's counsel holds any such ex parte meetings/discussions.
